A fact sheet released by the U.S. Small Business Administration in February, 2013, shows that New Jersey’s small businesses (less than 500 employees) represent 98.4 percent of all employers and employ 50.2 percent of the state’s private-sector labor force. Net Job growth (nonfarm) is still derived from firms with 1-4 employees.

The fact sheet is attached below.